Northeast Florida. Did you know?

WRCNEF is comprised of a group of citizens, business professionals, volunteers, veterinarians, rehabilitators, and wildlife advocates. These supporters came together from a realization that there were almost no other organization in northeast Florida that cared for injured wildlife. Since 2003, the WRCNEF has expanded to serve Baker, Clay, Duval, Flagler, Nassau, St. Johns, and Putnam counties. In 2011, over 2,000 wild animals were rescued. The WRCNEF receives no funding from the city, county, state, or federal sources. Fundraisers such as "Cocktails for a Cause" provide us with necessary funding for food, medical supplies and daily rescue center operations. Thank you for your continuous support!
